Attn:

Dear Mr. :

This will acknowledge receipt of your email to the Attorney General of Pennsylvania.

This response is made for informational purposes only, and nothing contained herein should be considered legal advice and may not be used for, or construed as such. To the extent you need personal legal advice, you should consult a private attorney of your own choosing and at your own cost. Neither the sender, nor the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General, shall be held liable for any adverse action taken as a result of this communication.

As to your first question, the written reciprocity agreement between Pennsylvania and New Hampshire is silent as to residency. Therefore, all valid licenses from New Hampshire are currently recognized in Pennsylvania.

As for your second question regarding the specific laws currently in force within the City of Philadelphia, we suggest you direct this inquiry to the Philadelphia Police Commissioner as the authority of the Office of Attorney General is defined by state laws, and this question does not come under our jurisdiction.

Sincerely yours,

Sharon K. Rogers
